

On methodological and other documents developed by the university to provide the educational process

In order to comply with the conditions for the implementation of educational programs in accordance with federal state educational standards of secondary professional and higher education in terms of educational and methodological provision, the university developed teaching materials and other documents:

1. Materials for work in the electronic library and electronic library systems (further – ELS):

- Information search in the electronic library of the university and in the ELS: methodological materials

http://library.syktsu.ru/index.php?option=com\_content&view=article&id=250

2. Educational and methodological materials in the disciplines (modules)

Educational and methodological materials in the disciplines (modules) are contained in electronic training courses posted in the Moodle Distance Learning System of Pitirim Sorokin Syktyvkar State University: <https://lms-moodle.syktsu.ru/>.

Entrance for teachers and students through their personal account in the campus information system of the electronic information and educational environment of the university: <https://campus.syktsu.ru/>

3. Methodical materials for students to work in the Moodle Distance Learning System of Pitirim Sorokin Syktyvkar State University:

Methodical materials (how to enter Moodle; how to recover a password; how to find the right course; how to send an answer to a task) are available at: http://eios.syktsu.ru/?page\_id=550

4. Another documents for providing educational process

The local acts on the implementation of basic educational programs to provide the educational process are posted on the official website of the university: <https://www.syktsu.ru/about/smk/lnd/>